STAY CONNECTED

CONNECT WITH FRIENDS
• On April 7, undergraduate students will be able to form households and will be able to gather indoors and outdoors with their households. Learn more at deanofstudents.stanford.edu/households.
• Get to know others through registered on-campus outdoor gatherings. On April 14, if conditions continue to improve, students will be able to register gatherings of up to 12 students within 3 households.
• Go to: scheduling.stanford.edu to reserve an outdoor space at least 3 days in advance.
• Our ability to have and continue in person events will be dependent on testing compliance rates and COVID’s prevalence. Help your fellow Stanford students by staying healthy and testing twice weekly.

GET INVOLVED

COVID GUIDANCE FOR STUDENTS
AND RELATED INFORMATION
As we continue to live with COVID-19 and the many ways in which it impacts student life, we've set-up a webpage to share relevant information with Stanford's communities. Learn more at studentaffairs.stanford.edu/covid-testing.
Students new to campus for spring quarter will be in a period of restricted activity from their arrival to April 7. This was designed to take into consideration Santa Clara County’s mandatory travel quarantine. Here’s what that means.

ALLOWED DURING RESTRICTED ACTIVITY
- Twice weekly testing with Verily
- Medical care
- Pick-up meals from the dining hall
- Grocery or prepared food delivered
- Solo outdoor exercise
- Laundry

ALLOWED AFTER RESTRICTED ACTIVITY
- Gather in approved and registered households. Learn more at https://deanofstudents.stanford.edu/gatherings
- Exercising outdoors is encouraged, subject to physical distancing
- Pool reservations and other recreational offerings can be made at rec.stanford.edu
- Shopping in Palo Alto

AS ALWAYS, WEAR YOUR MASK WHenever YOU ARE INDOORS IN COMMON AREA SPACES!
