Avenues for Change Week will seek to center activist and change maker voices on campus, their movements, and the different centers, resources, and avenues on campus that activists and students adjacent to activism can utilize and/or learn from.

EVENTS THROUGHOUT WEEK 4

SUNDAY 26TH JANUARY, 2020 • 12:30-5:30 PM (LUNCH @ 12:30, PROGRAMMING @ 1) • PAUL BREST HALL

- Explore the different avenues through which you can achieve institutional change.

- Develop action plans to address the different demanding issues that exist on our campus, which include Racial Violence, Sexual Violence, Mental Health, Faculty Diversity, and Ethical Investment. Administrators working on each of these issues will be present to help ideate and brainstorm, including Mathew Snipp, Mona Hicks, Laura Wilson, and Lauren Schoenthaler.

- Meet 4 trustees of the Board of Trustees in a Q&A Panel:
  - Michael Camunez, President and CEO of Monarch Global Strategies LLC,
  - Marc Jones, Chairman and CEO of Aeris Communications,
  - LaTonia “Tonia” G. Karr, Vice Chair of Meritus College Fund, and
  - Ruth Porat, CFO of Google.

TUESDAY 28TH JANUARY, 2020 • 3-5PM • TRESIDDER OAK LOUNGE & LOBBY

- The Centers for Equity, Community and Leadership is launching their ChangeMakers program with a panel featuring Stanford Alumni who moved the campus forward and made a lasting change for students today and in the future, these include Judy Wu ('89 Take Over), Frank Omowale Satterwhite ('68 Take the Mic), Elvira Prieto ('94 Hunger Strike), Lily Zheng ('15 Black Lives Matter and Gender Inclusion), and Dalton Brown.

- Exhibition of materials from the Stanford University Archives showcasing key moments in the history of Stanford student activism over the past 129 years.

WEDNESDAY 29TH JANUARY, 2020 • 11:00-1PM • BLACK COMMUNITY SERVICES CENTER

- All-center group welcome at the Black Community Services Center.
- Group tour of all the campus Community Centers where the audience will learn about:
  - The history of each community center
  - The work that they do
  - Ways to support the community and be an ally
  - Ways to be a part of the community

Event sponsored by Office of the Provost and Office of the Vice Provost for Student Affairs